Located in Boston, Massachusetts, Berklee is the world's largest independent music college and the premier institution for the study of contemporary music. The Berklee community consists of 4,300 talented and diverse students, 570 internationally respected faculty, over 500 dedicated staff, and an extended family of alumni, whose numerous Grammy awards testify to their contributions to the music of our time.

Young musicians come to Berklee from every corner of the earth to study music and develop musical competencies in such areas as composition, performance and recording/production, while learning to make the informed business decisions necessary to career success. The Berklee environment is designed to provide the most complete learning experience possible, including all of the opportunities and challenges presented by a career in the contemporary music industry.
